

Blog Practice Exercises

The following verbs can be STATIVE or ACTIVE. From context, fill in the blank with the correct answer. You will need to use the correct form of the BE verb if the verb needs to be in the progressive form

EX: I _____ dinner right now, it tastes delicious! (HAVE) answer: I am having dinner right now, it taste delicious!

1. I am seeing Dylan now, we've been together for 2 months. (SEE)
2. I see Dylan now, he's coming this way. (SEE)
3. Lucy looks tired, she must have had a long night. (LOOK)
4. Lucy is looking for her keys but can't find them anywhere (LOOK)
5. Paulo thinks this dish tastes too spicy. (TASTE)
6. Paulo is tasting this dish to see if it's too spicy. (TASTE)

Complete the sentence with the correct form of the verb from each of the categories listed below, you'll need to identify the verb and its form

1. appearance/value

I resemble my mother a lot, many people say we are alike.

2. emotions/feelings/desires

I like the TV show Nashville so much right now, it's so entertaining. (love, adore also OK)

3. mental states

I don't mind doing the dishes tonight. You cooked, so I would love to help you.

4. possession

This phone belongs to Emma, I don't have (not) an Android

5. senses/perceptions

I smell something burning right now, is the oven on?